“Spread Your Wings” Scholarship" would represent belief, opportunity, and encouragement from my community. As a student from Washington, D.C., this scholarship would help me continue pursuing my goals in robotic manufacturing engineering and higher education while reducing financial stress on my family. It would motivate me to work even harder, stay focused, and eventually give back by mentoring and supporting other young people from East of the River like me who are working toward their dreams.

Elliott Reed
Archbishop Carroll High School