Receiving the “Spread Your Wings” Scholarship means being supported by the people around me. It also means having my hard work, dedication, and goals recognized by others who believe in my future.

This scholarship gives me motivation to continue pushing myself academically and personally as I prepare for college. Most importantly, it reminds me that I have a community encouraging me to spread my wings and succeed.

Mya Permenter
KIPP DC Legacy