

Receiving the “Spread Your Wings” Scholarship is an honor. This scholarship will be another opportunity for my mom to be stress free when paying for my college tuition. I am so thankful that the committee members saw how much hard work I put in my education, myself, and the world. I know this scholarship is going to remind me every day in college why I should continue for my education and myself. Thank you again for being example of why I should always trust God plan.

Hannah Grayton